Dear Parishioners of St. Ignatius Loyola Parish:

My recent installation as your new pastor was meant to signify a new chapter in the life of our beloved parish. It is with profound gratitude and humility that I take up this appointment as your new pastor, entrusted with the sacred duty of shepherding this vibrant community.

In the Gospel of John, Jesus speaks to us with comforting clarity, saying, "I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep" (John 10:11). This profound statement is not merely a reflection of the relationship between Christ and His Church, but also a call to all who are entrusted with pastoral care.

As I step into this role, I am acutely aware of the weight and responsibility that comes with it. I am reminded of the words of Saint Paul in his letter to the Ephesians, where he speaks of the Church being "built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the chief cornerstone" (Ephesians 2:20). This foundation reminds us that our parish is built upon a legacy of faith, sacrifice, and love, and it is my sacred duty to continue this work with the same dedication and spirit.

Our parish is a living testament to the grace of God—a community bound together by faith, hope, and love. It is a place where the sacraments are celebrated, where the Word of God is preached, and where the faithful come together to support one another. My role as your pastor is to nurture this spiritual home, to guide you in your faith and to support you in your own journey of discipleship.

In accepting this role, I am also committed to listening deeply to your hopes, concerns, and needs. We are called to be a community that listens to one another, that supports one another, and that grows together in faith and love. I invite each of you to share with me your joys and your challenges, your aspirations and your fears.

As we embark on this journey together, let us remember the words of Saint Peter: "As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace" (1 Peter 4:10). Each one of us has been blessed with unique gifts and talents. Let us use these gifts to build up our community, to serve those in need and to spread the message of God's love.

In closing, I wish to express my heartfelt gratitude to you all for the warm welcome you have extended to me. I am eager to get to know each of you better, to walk with you in your faith journey, and to serve you with all the love and dedication that Christ calls us to.

Let us pray for one another, that we may be united in purpose, strengthened in faith, and filled with the joy of the Lord. May our parish continue to be a beacon of hope and a testament to the enduring love of God.

Yours in Christ,
Fr Edward Curtis, Pastor
